Re: United States v. Oberholzer, et al., 21 CR 475 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

I am writing on behalf of defendant Barend Oberholzer to respectfully request permission for Mr. Oberholzer to reschedule his one day trip to Denver, Colorado to March 1 instead of February 23, as previously granted by Your Honor, due to a family emergency that prevented his travel. As before, the defendant would be traveling to Denver to attend a business meeting at the Gaylord Convention Center and inspect design changes for a product that he is developing. The government, by AUSA Jilan Kamal, and Pretrial Services, by PTSO Dominique Jackson, take no position on the defendant's application. If approved, Mr. Oberholzer would provide Pretrial Services with a detailed itinerary of his trip.

By way of background, on March 2, 2021, Judge Lehrburger released Mr. Oberholzer on a $500K personal recognizance bond secured by two financially responsible persons, with conditions including, inter alia, that the defendant's travel be limited to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the Central and Southern Districts of California. Since that date, the defendant has remained compliant with his conditions of release.

Thank you for the Court's consideration on this application; I remain available for a teleconference should Your Honor deem it necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
